Please list the steps you have taken to assure yourself you have not acquired citizenship of another country by descent, marriage or other means.

I am a third generation Australian citizen.

My spouse obtained citizenship on 15th December 1970. My wife does not have a British passport but even if she were a British citizen, the British government website makes it clear that I would have to apply for British citizenship and meet certain other requirements.

I have never applied for British citizenship.
